Part One

This is a short work, taking us from the point of origin in the Everlasting Past unto the launching point of the Everlasting Future.

The main focus is a step-back observation . . . from God's perspective on what is to occur during the 7,000 year, short work Probationary Period, for Mankind.

This Probationary Period, is a designated time allocation that the Apostle Paul refers to in the Book of Romans. (Romans 9:28)

Introduction

This short work is a brief summation of the things that have occurred from the dateless past, through the previous Angelic Probationary Period, into this current Probationary Period for Mankind, right on into the dateless future that lies out ahead.

This short work is designed to be informative concerning the one-and-only Living God, named “I AM THAT I AM.”

This short work addresses the moral creation that exists within this universe right now, and attempts to give clarity as to who is who, and what is what.

This short work explains . . . in layman’s terms . . . why God has done what He has done, and the reason that He has had to do it that way.

This short work reveals the part that the unique Nation of Israel plays within the scenario of the everlasting, and the various occurrences that have transpired on this Earth concerning that nation.

This short work will be formatted into a relaxed, Scripturally-notated, informal conversation between you and me.

It is our prayer that the information within this short work will be informative, enlightening, and possibly entertaining, for the average individual.

It is requested that brief consideration, at the very least, be given to what is presented here. The average Christian individual is woefully ignorant concerning spiritual issues of any depth, and the rest of the world, is as blind as a bat and is running headlong, at high speed, towards a cliff of everlasting destruction. Is anybody, anywhere, listening, or even interested? We shall see . . . won’t we?

* all Bible quotes are from the King James Version

ONE

Before the Beginning

This chapter heading is certainly not normally what one would hear, is it? At the very least, the majority of Christian people on the planet are familiar with the idea of In the Beginning . . . but that is about as far back as it is usually hazarded to go. Anything prior to that normally would fall into the general category of . . . God . . . and that is all. And that, of course, would certainly be a correct summation, within its parameters. However, it would seem only logical that certain things that do not necessarily fall within the normal restrictions of measured time, most certainly must have taken place at some point.

The Scriptures, the Word of God, the Bible, is the only authoritative record that Human Beings have been given when it comes to issues such as these. God has purposed to give unto us all things that pertain to life and godliness (II Peter 1:3) so that we will be informed, and not be in-the-dark concerning important eternal matters. And so, it is to these records that we must go and draw our authority for any proposed postulations. Within the last thirty years, the gracious God of all creation has shared with this author, through His word, numerous decisions and actions that have occurred within the very council of the declared Three Persons in One God-Godhead. (Romans 1:20; I John 5:7)

First, since the Scriptures themselves confirm that there is only One God (Deuteronomy 6:4; Isaiah 44:9) but, additionally reveals that there are Three Persons that make up this One God, (I John 5:7) then there must be certain decisions and actions that have occurred between the Members of the Godhead so that there would be no schism, or division, or conflict within the midst of them. Ergo, there must have been a specific point in everlasting past when all Three Persons of the One God-Godhead, mutually and amicably, agreed as to who would sit within the position of, and be known as, the First Person, and who would fulfill the post of the Second Person's position, and who would then balance out the Trinity, within the position of the Third Person. (Romans 1:20)

Secondly, since the personage of God is not in any kind of wonderment, or at all befuddled as concerning who He is, but the members of the constituency of Mankind are most certainly able to become confused concerning Three-in-One, it is extremely important to establish and assign specific names and titles that would be ascribed to each of the Members of the Trinity for clarity. (Romans 1:20) These names and titles would then certainly be applicable in any of the dateless past real-time scenarios, as well as having a prophetic aspect for future complete-creative-plan fulfillment.

Thirdly, would be the question of assigned duties and responsibilities for each of the Persons. Since He is a God of order (I Corinthians 14:40) there must not be any possibility of cross-over conflicts that might gender confusion among either God or Man. The First Person of the Godhead should not find Himself in any conflict with the Second Person of the Godhead, nor with the Third Person of the Godhead in any matter having to do with original creation itself, or with creative operations, or with plans of reconciliation or redemption, when the time ultimately comes for them to come into play. This shall be effectively dealt with by mutually agreed upon authority and task assignments within all creative endeavors, and redemptive maneuvers.

The First Person shall be the head of, and administrator of, the existence realm of thought, (Romans 1:20) as well as the Most High God, (Genesis 14:18) as well as the Architect and Creator of all things, (Isaiab 40:28) and the future Father and God of the God/Man Jesus Christ of Nazareth. (II Samuel 7:14; Ephesians 1:3)

The Second Person of the Godhead shall be the head of, and administrator of, the existence realm of word, (John 1:1; Romans 1:20) as well as the Redeemer of Mankind, (Genesis 3:15) as well as the future Son of the Most High God, (II Samuel 7:14; Psalm 2:7) as well as the prototype and Father of the New Creation (Isaiah 9:6) and the High Priest of the Most High God forevermore, after the Order of Melchizedek. (Hebrews 7:15-17)

The Third Person of the Godhead shall be the head of, and administrator of, the existence realm of deed, (Romans 1:20) as well as the manifest power-portion of the Godhead, (Genesis 1:2) as well as the Comforter, (John 16:7) as well as the Spirit of Adoption for the future children of the Most High God, (Romans 8:15) and the assisting “I will never leave you nor forsake you” helper for the New Creation constituency. (Hebrews 13:5)

The Three Persons of the Trinity maintain their One-God projection and operation, by being absolutely harmonious within all three of the realms of existence.

What the First Person would think, the Second Person would also think, and the Third Person would not be any different. The fact that they would not necessarily think the same thing at the same time, does not diminish in any way their harmony.

What the Second Person would say, the Third Person would also say, and the First Person would not be any different. The fact that they do not necessarily say the same thing at the same time, does not diminish in any way their harmony.

What the Third Person can do, the First Person can also do, and the Second Person would operate no differently. The fact that they do not necessarily do the same thing at the same time, does not diminish their harmony in any respect.

That is why there is a need for amicably agreed upon duties and task assignments within the Trinity. Each of the members of the Godhead will meticulously remain within their operating parameters. There is no crossing over the line, ever!

Since the aspect of free-will-decision for all moral creation, shall be the center-most issue within the whole of the creation that God will be bringing forth, there is the distinct possibility of disobedience and rebellion. Any given moral creature that is granted a free will gives no personal guarantee that they shall choose to remain loyal to the benevolent Creator, and continue to be obedient. And since foreknowledge (Isaiah 46:9-10) is aware of the two major rebellions that shall indeed occur in the process of time, there needs to be the drafting of the details of two specific plans of reconciliation and redemption. (Romans 3:24) One plan is relegated to eternal, moral, triune beings, dwelling within Celestial or Terrestrial bodies (i.e., “Angels” and “Other Creatures”) and the other plan is assigned to eternal, Express-Image, (Genesis 1:26; Hebrews 1:3) triune beings, that will dwell within Terrestrial bodies to begin with, and shall then transition into Spiritual bodies when the time comes. (I Corinthians 15:40)

When we understand that there are plans for restoration, that are to be established for the benefit of all of moral creation, then we should also understand that there needs to be a set of accurate records, that out of necessity, must be kept for fairness purposes. An accurate set of books is to be prepared to record all willfully disobedient and errant activities, that shall occur amongst all of the moral Human populous. (Revelation 21:27)

Additionally, a superior project of divine design that within the process of time, will actually deal with an unprecedented creation of a new-species of moral being, is drafted in liquid silver and dipped in transparent gold by the creative hand of predestination. (Romans 8:29) All of the details concerning this project are fully completed and in order, even before one second of created time ticks by. Everything having to do with this particular project is finished ahead of time because the whole of the project is accomplished by God, through the future God/Man, and for the benefit of the NEW CREATION new species constituents. (I Peter 1:20) Simple belief and acceptance of what God has done is the initial requirement. (John 6:29) Willful, continued obedience, and adherence to regulations will fully seal the off the charts benefits that go with this plan. (Revelation 17:14) And the entire basis of it all, is Love.

Finally, creation-regulation-restrictions, or the creative laws by which all things shall be brought forth into existence, and then operate continually by, need to be drafted, established, and installed. This includes the initial base set of laws (both spiritual and natural) and also whatsoever associate supportive laws that apply, that will work harmoniously and cooperatively with those base set of laws.

And with all of those necessary issues finally completed and locked-down, the created element of time can receive a green light to commence its operation. Within the corridor of calculated time, spoken thoughts are then uttered, Basic Creation Elements begin to interweave with established base laws, and the things of creation are then manufactured and manifested through the creative portal. (John 1:3) The Existence Program has now been started, and will travel on an irreversible path, into the trackless, limitless, eternity that looms inevitably ahead and defies comprehension.

TWO

God Creates the Material Universe

Everything has to have a start somewhere, and at some given point in time, does it not? Even secular atheists, it would seem, might have to agree on that particular notion.

According to the One who, at various given points in time, started all the things that are in existence, He is the self-declared Creator. (Isaiah 44:8)

The idea that there is no such being as the Almighty God, and that there is no intelligent life behind all of the creation, comes from the two-dimensional-thinking mindset of Man, influenced by death, sin, and Hell and is simply ludicrous at best. (Psalm 14:1)

God Himself declares that He does indeed exist, (Isaiah 48:12) and in direct contrast, many men of professed intelligence prefer to declare that God does not exist, but rather, that everything that is now in the state of existence is the result of some gigantic Big Bang. This author, however, challenges just who might be correct in their position?

But regardless of the expressed postulations of spiritual ignorance, the end result is a measurable, immeasurable universe filled with billions of immense galaxies that each contain billions of burning stars that potentially support innumerable solar systems, in which there are an untold number of planets of habitable conditions, capable of supporting life as we know it. And all of this universal activity did not simply just happen by something going BOOM!

For the sake of our short study, we are going to take the stated position that there is an intelligent, benevolent Creator who is behind all of this, and who has brought forth all that does exist, because of an incalculable Love. (John 3:16-17)

And with that as a basis, may we then understand that God possesses the unique quality of that which is called “foreknowledge:” that of knowing the end, or the completion of something, from the beginning. (Isaiah 46:9-10) And accordingly, He has drafted a plan for all of the inanimate material creation, and for the various creatures, both instinctive and moral, that are to be brought into manifest existence for the designed purpose of habitation of this expansive universal creation. (Ephesians 1:11)

* * *

We have seen that creative laws were established and ordained before the element of time began. And with the earliest of actions, Basic Creation Elements of Air, Water, and Soil, were brought forth and were infused with divine investment. These elements themselves would be the finished product of spoken-thought (John 1:3) and would be combined with other established laws of creation-operation and spoken-thought, to create those things that are seen. (Hebrews 11:3)

Without breaking any of the established laws by which all things have come into existence and operate by, God is then able to hasten His word in any given situation, and speed-up the very end result of the desired product. (Psalms 147:15; Jeremiah 1:12) Divinely spoken words, mixed with faith, and utilizing the three Basic Creation Elements, will produce whatever is precisely and accurately, described verbally in detail.

All of the material creation did not just poof into existence, as is so often put forth by Christian creationists who declare that we see. (John 9:14) And God said, “Let there be . . .” and POOF! there was . . . is not Scripturally sound, and does not even make much sense. Everything that is in operational existence today functions by a specific set of designated laws, not magic, and there is not one exception to that spiritual truth. So we will find that original creation, and the bringing forth of all things, is not going to be operating any differently than understandable functioning parameters. God is not a magician, He is a Creator.

And although the time factor is certainly an influencing criteria, this author does not agree that this universe is billions and billions of years old, no matter what the invented machines of Man indicate within their calculated measurements.

The length of time that it took to bring all things forth is not revealed unto us, even within the established reliable record of the Scriptures, but this author postulates that we are much closer to the beginning than even spiritual men today believe.

* * *

Upon completion of the material portion of creation, no matter how long it took, that included galaxies, stars, and planets; and on some of those various planets, mountains, seas, rivers, canyons, and extensive flora and fauna . . . the juncture is arrived at, that it is time to bring forth a moral creation for the benevolent pleasure fulfillment and satisfaction of the heart. This is not a creation of necessity based upon loneliness or boredom, but rather a creative expression of incalculable love. There is no need to creatively drag-our-feet, but there is also no real need to be in a hurry either . . . eternity is a long time. The size of the universe may be boggling to Man, but not so to the One who designed it. He has a Master Plan to merge size and purpose so that they blend together perfectly. And by His grace, an invitation has been extended to probational men, to be a viable part of this plan. A God of grace, desires to share what He is able to do, with any and all of the *whosoever*s of the moral creation, that are destined to be brought forth, and who would be willing to freely accept it.

THREE

God Creates Intelligent Moral Beings

Following our proposed time-line, we are now witness to a growing, expanding universe, that is void of any intelligent life, exempting of course, for the Creator Himself. And, by the way, the expanding universe notation is a scientific postulation and not a Biblical declaration. So a reasonable question would be, what specific uncreated area is the universe expanding into?

Solid Scriptural expose on these earliest of days, and of all of the creation endeavors of the Lord God Almighty are not prolifically abundant. The reason being, because they are not the spiritual focus of the Plan that God has drafted for the whole of the everlasting. However, spending focused time with God, coupled with an interest and an earnest desire for the truth, will be of much benefit concerning spiritual insight as to what has happened in days gone by.

When we finally reach the point of contemplating all of the aspects of intelligent life, we reach a juncture for an understanding of the whole reason for the creation of the universe in the first place.

And as Human Beings, we have been made privy, by the God of grace, to established reliable accounts of intelligent, moral, and free-willed creatures, other than Mankind, that occupy existence. (Hebrews 1:13-14; Romans 8:39) However, we do not have any further records, anywhere, from any other reliable source, concerning those beings who are referred to by the constituency of Mankind, as aliens. Once again, that is a postulation based upon an errant, active imagination.

What we do have is an informative basis for understanding the lower categories of intelligently created creatures. It is not arrogance, but rather fact that Man is in the highest of all of the Created Creature categories; and he is not here on this Earth by reason of the evolutionary process, but by the direct creative action of the God of Love. Man is noted as being brought forth into existence in the very image, and after the exact likeness of the Master Creator Himself. (Genesis 1:26) And as such, Man holds the highest position of all of the creative endeavors, within the whole of the universe. (Hebrews 2:8)

The two other distinct categories of Created Creatures would be the Angelic Hosts of heaven, and the Other Creatures (Romans 8:39) mentioned by the Apostle Paul in his letter to the church at Rome . . . whom at this time, certain un-named angelic beings might be ruling over (until the “New Creation Project” is complete) in certain of the focused universal locales. (Isaiah 14:12-13; Jeremiah 4:23-26)

Angelic Beings, of whatever ranking, would be inclusive within the second category of Created Creatures that God has brought forth into existence. Angels are not Human Beings that have gone on to become angels after their death, and are assigned the task of earning their wings by doing good deeds for Human Beings that are struggling through the issues of life on planet Earth. Clarence was still a Human Being, not an angel trying to earn his wings.

Angels are a distinct category of created beings unto themselves. They are indeed, spirit beings (Hebrews 1:14) that have a free-will. They have been gifted with intelligence, and supplied with a moral compass, and their essence dwells within a Celestial body. (I Corinthians 15:40) They have been brought forth in an Eternal state of existence, and have a capacity to live forever with God, if they continue in their obedience to Love. (I John 4:8) They vary in their appearance from humanistic to beyond a comprehensible description. Even though we may not have an understanding of the details, it is probable that they belong to a societal operation of some sort. It is unlikely that God would bring forth a creature that has no other purpose but focused servitude, 24/7, throughout an eternity of existence. That does not even make sense.

Angels vigorously participate in a myriad of activities beyond their societal involvement, within their service to God, and when Man is to be created, within their service to him as well. Angels are not precursors to demons. Demons are the spirit/soul residue of previous inhabitants of this particular planet. In their creative origin they were the first inhabitants of this planet, and they built cities, (Jeremiah 4:26) and formed themselves into nations. (Isaiah 14:12) Their physical death rendered them disembodied, and they are now referred to as demons.

FOUR

The Probation of the First Social Order

Although we know from Scriptural records that there was a First Social Order on this planet (Genesis 1:2; Psalm 104:5-7; Isaiah 14:12-14; Jeremiah 4:23-26; Ezekiel 28:11-19; II Peter 3:5-7) we do not know exactly when this society came forth, time wise.

As we reflect upon this Second Social Order that we now belong to, it is revealed unto us that God started all of humanity with one Man and one Woman. Natural multiplication over expired time eventually produced the teeming society that inhabits this planet Earth today. Biblical calculations are able to provide us with a solid, six-thousand year history of Mankind, but that is all. Every other postulation that is put forth is put forth by two-dimensional thinking, evolutionary men, who put their trust in other natural evidence, to calculate and substantiate their positions.

Might it be then that the First Social Order had proceeded along a similar path of travel as the Second? That is, begin with an original mating pair of creatures, and over a period of time obtain a bustling population? Or, was the plan to create an entire population, fully mature, without the privilege of procreative permission? We do not know the answer to that question at this time because we do not have any precise records to draw from. However, what is clear from the testimony of Scripture, is that whosoever or whatsoever these first moral creatures on planet Earth were, they were not Human. Mankind holds that unique God-class position, as being the only created creature to be brought forth in the image and after the likeness of the God of all creation Himself. (Genesis 1:26) What we do know is that these creatures eventually formed themselves into nations, (Isaiah 14:12) and excelled in building cities. (Jeremiah 4:26)

It would also Scripturally seem that this society was in need of provided governance and that there was, at that time, an angel in training that needed a task assignment that would solidify his obedience record. (Ezekiel 28:15) And so, the holy angel Lucifer was granted a throne (Isaiah 14:13) and placed within a governance position over the first inhabitants of planet Earth.

Sadly, we see that, with the intelligence that he was given, over a period of time the angel named Lucifer did not keep his thought-life in order, and his thinking began to go renegade. (Ezekiel 28:17) Within the capacity of his gifted free-will, he developed inappropriate personal desires, (Isaiah 14:13-14) and the end result, because of the anointing that he was entrusted with, and currently carried, (Ezekiel 28:14) by his actions there came forth the creation of a heinous new spiritual law within the universe called . . . the Law of Sin. (Romans 8:2)

We have no time records to inform us of how long Lucifer was in the governance position. Nor do we know how long it may have been from the time of the original bringing forth of the social order, to the installation of the governor. What we do know is that the Law of Sin snared Lucifer as its first captive, (Romans 7:15-23) and he began to slander God and lead his subjects down a pathway of eventual doom. (Ezekiel 28:18) In addition, Lucifer exercised influence over other angelic beings, and persuaded them to follow him in his attempted coup operations. (Isaiah 14:13; Revelation 12:4) When his preconceived assault to ensconce himself as supreme ruler, (Isaiah 14:13) was launched against the throne of God, he was soundly thwarted and was cast back down to his rebellious headquarters on Earth. (Luke 10:18) It was at this particular time, even though foreknowledge has been acutely aware of everything that has been going on, that God can no longer forestall the judgment that, of a necessity, must come forth.

Free-will, intelligent, moral creation has been brought forth into existence by a loving Creator of all that is, that they might have life and all of the blessings that a benevolent Creator would desire to grant. They have been placed into a position of subjection to a higher class being of creation, for their benefit of education and growth, and for the perfecting of his probationary training. An irreversible Law has emerged onto the scene as a result of unchecked iniquity, and that Law has effected a detrimental change in Lucifer's angelic-nature. And now, he is becoming the icon of pervasive, mounting evil amongst a fledgling society. Angelic associates operating in various locales within this universe, are being actively petitioned to join in with him in his seditious maneuvers, aimed at a God of grace, mercy, and love. Slander has succeeded in enlisting the subjective populous of planet Earth into agreeing with his evil rebellious proposals, and a crescendo of disobedience swells into an active assault, launched against the Holy City of God and the throne of Love. Forbearance reaches its limit, and action must now be taken to stem this tide of disruption before it goes any further. Needed judgment is about to occur. The whistle is blown, and the appointed lifeguard proclaims: "Alright, everybody out of the pool!"

The Judgment of the First Social Order

The action of casting Lucifer back to his rebellious headquarters here on this planet, is followed by the in-hot-pursuit action of the God of Love, who will now turn His hat around, and operate as the God of judgment.

In much the same manner as sergeant stripes are stripped from the uniform of the now demoted private, Lucifer is relieved of the privileged anointing that he once carried, and his keys to the heavenly executive washroom are subsequently removed from his possession. His name is changed to Satan, to reflect the change that has taken place within his character and nature because of sin. He still has granted access to the receiving room of the universal Throne (Job 1:6; Revelation 12:10) but his associate angelic rebels do not enjoy that same privilege. They are severely restricted in their flight maneuvers, and are confined to the heavenly areas around planet Earth. They remain complete in the triune construction of their being, but they are eternally-spiritually-dead in their sins because of their refusal to take advantage of whatever catalyst that a God of mercy provided for errant eternal creations gone astray (II Peter 3:9) that they might be forgiven, and reconciled unto their Creator.

Attention is then turned towards the inhabitants of planet Earth itself. Cataclysmic natural events begin to unfold. Earthquakes in diverse places, (Jeremiah 4:24) all manner of chaotic devastation, (Jeremiah 4:23) the animal complement of the planet thrown into a panic and attempting to flee from destruction, (Jeremiah 4:25) the disseminating of the erected cities by earthquakes and planetary flooding, like that which will come about in the days of Noah (Genesis 1:2; Psalm 104:5-7; Jeremiah 4:26) and as a final judgmental act, light from the already existing sun, moon, and stars is withheld, and the planet is plunged into darkness as the Lord personally turns out the lights, leaves the scene, and returns to the Holy City headquarters of the universe. (Jeremiah 4:23) With the light turned off, and the subsequent heat that comes with it withheld, the planet quickly freezes and plummets into an Ice Age of undetermined length. All inhabitants, whether animal compliment or intelligent and moral, either drown or are destroyed by the freezing darkness. Their bodies being destroyed by decay, the now evil, intelligent, moral contingent of this planet become disembodied demons, and ultimately slave agents for the bidding of their wicked taskmaster, Satan.

Once the probationary activities are brought to a conclusion, a specific locale (Deuteronomy 32:22; Matthew 25:41) that we know of as the Nether World, is then prepared for the spiritual rebels to inhabit permanently.

The First Social Order on planet Earth is now a thing of the past. That which we know of as the Angelic Probationary Period is now a thing of the past. The leader of the rebellious insurgency has been removed from his governance position and judged concerning his disobedience and rebellion. His sentence is known, but it is not manifest as of yet. The sentences of his followers are known, but they are not executed as of yet either. Another Probationary Period lays directly ahead. Free-will decision, with manifested results of individual choice, has been determined. At this particular point in time then, let us bring forth our finest creation, and execute the beginning of the Second Probationary time-line. And in the process, we will purpose to definitively deal with the Law of Sin . . . forever.

SIX

The Probation of the Second Social Order Begins

In returning to the Earth, just as a person does when they enter into a dark room, the light, of necessity, must be turned back on. Genesis chapter one, verse three, is not a creative action, but rather a permissive statement. Whatever light-proof barrier that had been put into place with the judgmental actions of the Angelic Probation (Jeremiah 4:23) is now to be removed, and light from the already existing sun, moon, and stars is once again allowed to shine upon the Earth.

Because of judgmental consequences, certain issues need to be addressed, and time nuance adjustments will need to be made to the already existing sun, moon, and stars.

The total flooding actions of already existing waters (Psalms 104:6) and the absence of light shining upon the planet has caused the physical death of all moral creation, as well as the animal compliment and the planetary flora and fauna. So, it is necessary to separate the waters from the waters once again, cause the sky to be reformatted, bring forth portions of dry land, and then prepare to cause life once again to operate, within the planetary dead-zone of Earth.

The planet is spiritually pristine clean and has become physically habitable for a second time. (Isaiah 45:18) Trees, and bushes, and plants of all kinds are recreated, and a fully equipped special testing garden is even planted by the Lord Himself, in a particular location. (Genesis 2:8)

From the Soil and the Water, two of the three Basic Creation Elements, an animal compliment contingent for this Second Social Order, is brought forth. (Genesis 1:20-2; 24-25) Their purpose, even as with the First Social Order, will be for burden bearing, for companionship, and for food. And, at a given point in time, they will also be utilized for sacrificial purposes; that their life may become forfeit, and their innocent sin-free blood may be shed for atonement purposes, concerning a guilty, law-breaking Human Being.
